Who knew garters could be this elegant and sassy?

Gone are the days for the frumpy, ugly garters...

Los Angeles-based company, Bleu, is transforming the traditional garter into beautifully embellished and adorned handmade works of art.

Bleu gives the bride the option to choose a style from their studio, or create something customized to coordinate with their wedding theme.

If you fancy the idea of making a one of a kind garter, you can choose from the design, fabric, color, embellishments and momentos unique to you and your wedding day.

Why not even treat your bridesmaids to coordinating garters? A keepsake that will bring back memories for years.

Something old, something new, something borrowed, something Bleu...Bleu Garters!
